Administered by the Safety Awards Selection Committee
Idaho Trucking Association
3405 East Overland Road/ Suite 175, Meridian, ID 83642

RULES:

- 1. The contest year is January 1, 2021, through December 31, 2021.
- 2. The contest is open to companies of all sizes including small owner/operators. The safety supervisor must be employed by a member company of the Idaho Trucking Association.
- 3. Any member company may submit only one safety supervisor per contest year. The safety supervisor must have been employed by their current employer for the entire contest year.
- 4. The safety supervisor will be ineligible for this award if they have won within the last three contest years.
- 5. The winning Safety Supervisor of the Year will be nominated for the Rocky Mountain Regional Safety Rendezvous Supervisor of the Year Award.
- 6. The nominee for "Safety Supervisor of the Year" must be actively involved in the loss prevention program and safety activities of an ITA member company. This will include Safety Directors, Safety Supervisors, or other persons responsible for those duties.
- 7. The Safety Awards Selection Committee will particularly consider the safety supervisor's performance during the contest year; however, his/her performance over past years is also important in the selection process.
- 8. The Safety Awards Selection Committee will use officially approved and established criteria to select the winner of the award.
- 9. Submissions are limited to this official entry form and must be legible.
- 10. Submission deadline is August 15, 2022.
